

TakeCare makes donation to GCC health program

TakeCare is helping to ensure our island keeps up with the demands of the healthcare industry. This morning they donated $50,000 to the Guam Community College's Allied Health Program. During the check presentation ceremony, GCC President Mary Okada noted ground has been broken on a new allied health building and that it should be ready to open by Fall 2009.

TakeCare is helping to ensure our island keeps up with the demands of the healthcare industry. This morning they donated $50,000 to the Guam Community College's Allied Health Program. During the check presentation ceremony, GCC President Mary Okada noted ground has been broken on a new allied health building and that it should be ready to open by Fall 2009.